Whitman felt very keenly the strangeness of the link between the man who reads a book and the unknown or dead man who wrote it; this may have helped him to work the miracle he needed. This is a presentable copy, with some light creasing and wear. The cover art on the dustjacket is different than the book. Although at first they broke through the social boundaries of the old aristocracy. He injured his arm badly. The civil war died down but there were still his patients with pains from their phantom limbs. The Kyoto School thinkers rarely responded directly to their critics after the war, and we can only speculate on the reasons for this see Horio
