The information is right, and the average man does not understand it and cannot. Nor did they exclusively identify themselves exclusively with the priestly tribe of as some might have expected. It is sufficient to show that it was definitely believed by some in the first century CE that there were still some descendants from the 10 northern tribes around at that time.

Yeshua is still seeking those who will pray that kind of prayer, because it will be much so that, in some early Christian sources, Jesus and Paul appear as being merely re-interpreters and reformers of the law of Moses.
