By depicting life in the Japanese-occupied Western states as characterized by a relative normalcy, the novel questions the hegemonic American memory narrative of World War II as the fight against an absolute evil. At the same time, these revised approaches nonetheless still purport today to be marginalized within German memory discourse as a whole, maintaining their status as contested counter-memories irrespective of their growing influence.

Again, the reader is presented with a second narrative, which is now presented. Having instated himself as a de facto dictator, Churchill is still in power at this time. AMP, so mein Eindruck, wirkt sich auf das Ranking aus, obwohl das nicht stimmen muss.

Not in Europe. The present edition prepared with Renate Radek as the third co-author reflects the enormous progress achieved in the research of single-celled organisms in the recent years and thus had to be revised to a large extent. Bibliotheken, Internetquellen, ggf.
