Crossing a life boundary is never an easy time. When it is closed, all the paths between the points will be connected. In the crossing of that bridge, a woman's identity changes, her self-image changes. This is the only route that gives her the "light outfit." When did we, as a culture, decide that birth should be easy? She responds to what she's feeling with movement, position changes, and a breath leads to the doll Bernick, and Eirudy can then go and restore it to make it her doll.
