Sign Up. The narrating self is, in contrast, retrospective in tone: we could imagine it as the adult voice of the child looking back through the prism of his childish perception. ListswithThisBook. Spectacular characterization; worth owning for that reason. The prologue describes the arrival of David and his mother Genya in New York when he is about 18 month old. They were like worn shoe-soles or very thin dimes. Althoughhe never mentionsitto her, David cannot escapethethoughtthathisto localize it to your language.
