Here's my list of gripes: 1 The book relied much too heavily on anecdotal evidence to prove its points. Mistakes were made goes into considerable depth on one key failing, cognitive dissonance. That same month, a gang that duped women into selling their eggs for surrogacy was busted in Pune. Stephen Wilmot. Directly in front of the chair was a poster – one of those graphic posters that show police at a car accident and warning about drink driving or something of the kind. For him, any other option was unthinkable. It saved me some frustration and that was okay because the episode was a minor one. Aronson. Goodreads Librari
