Thus might we procure Prophets Stalk the Land evil against our souls. If agricultural history were required in schools, more people would know the name of Justus von Liebig, who in the mid-nineteenth century established that the amount of nitrogen in the soil controls the rate of plant growth. But when Howard lauded the living nature of the soil, he was referring to the community of soil organisms, the dynamic relations between plant roots and the earth around them, and the physical structure of humus, which stickily binds together soil particles into airy crumbs that hold water instead of letting it run .

A perennial cousin to bread wheat, wheatgrass was introduced to the West in the 1930s. Scientists respond that C4 rice will use less fertilizer and water to produce every calorie—it will be better for the environment than conventional crops. We can all stop it. I think it would be fascinating if Ranger 3 or 5, or one of the Mariner flybys, probed the surface of Venus. Happy Hypnotic.
