Full view. We came to town intending to learn more about tequila, to try a few tequilas not too many; I was driving and, you know, it was midday and to depart with a nice bottle. The two terminals are connected by a bus line and a light rail system, which is significantly faster than the bus.

It limits vehicle circulation to certain restricted hours during the day depending on the day of the week. Driving can turn into a really challenging experience if you don't know precisely well where are you going. Queretaro is rich in colonial monuments, charming walking streets, lively plazas, and a monumental aqueduct all of which make it a UNESCO Site.

Adventures on land include hiking to see waterfalls, mountain biking, and climbing. Only its historic center recognized by UNESCO, it is widely considered one of the safest cities in Mexico and boasts gorgeous colonial architecture and vibrant buildings.
