Each group was asked to nominate one of the members to document the discussion. As a part of our research we met with frontline staff and support groups we conducted interviews we then mapped the pain points we found from this research. From that day forward I moved from just exegeting the Scriptures to seeing the glory of Christ throughout the Bible—a deeper purpose than just grammar.

I began to embrace my identity and work as a mother for the first time, and found We Believe 1.
