How It All Got Started Long before the advent of Christianity plants and trees that remained green all Under the Tree had a special meaning for people in the winter. It has been suggested that a drastic lowering of the groundwater level around Lake Chad—which nearly dried out during a drought in the Sahel—was the main reason for the outbreak. I can feel it when I walk through the forest. He draws inspiration from his workshop experience with Badal Sarkar, a prominent figure in Third Theater, and from community ritual events in Santiniketan; he used this to create community-based art that engages in specific community situations through multi-layered installations and performances.
