I think next time I read Le Guin, I'll pick up one of her novels to give it a try instead. The Swan Did you too see it, drifting, all night, on the black river? Mark Epstein is a psychiatrist in New York City.

Whenever I need inspiration, I go to one of these lists and read through the success stories. I said "I love you" today I tried hard to make you believe it I tried hard to believe it myself But the truth is that I hate you my love I hate you now and I hated you when I said it When I look into your eyes all that I can see is a string of broken promises lies stacked upon lies things that you wanted to do but never tried and the countless missed opportunities created by the millions SOULS ADRIFT - A Poetic Journey precious moments I'll never get back Yes, I hate you I hate who you are I hate what you've made me and most of all I hate what we've become Even if I could love you and all of your cruel ways I could never love what we've become a sickening, rotten display of denial a putrid example of naivete run amok and a horrid case of idealism gone too far I don't love you but I SOULS ADRIFT - A Poetic Journey who you were supposed to be I love what I thought you were but you never understood yourself you never make an attempt to understand me and now no one not even the Gods above can understand us So why, why do I say I love you? Dianecca Mangal Poetry delivers the majesty of freedom.
