But since ethical values only have a value to society when put into practice, we need to inculcate ethical reflection as a habit and use learner-centred methods of joint decision making and collective learning through additional approaches, like for instance case-studies, group discussion and role playing 46. This book combines for the first time the topics of preference adaptation, individual autonomy, and choosing to die or to enhance human capacities in a unique and comprehensive volume, filling an important knowledge gap in the contemporary bioethics literature. SilverthornDU.A personal perspective and a note on the contribution of Fritz
