Lawen Mohtadi / Katarina Taikon
The Day I Am Free / Katitzi
This book tells the story of Taikon's life in three parts. The second is Taikon in her own words: the first volume of her autobiographical children's book series, Katitzi. The final section is an essay written by curator Maria Lind that articulates the cultural impact.

It is SO in the habit of Stroud to kill off pretty much everybody, starting with my favourite characters! Maybe it would go toward that instead, especially if a magic funding source like a TAship... woo... appeared for the MPH.

Jahresring64PierreBal-BlancEd. An epic conclusion to an epic fantasy series. He lives in Acheron on the Great Escarpment in the north of Mars before fleeing to the hidden colony after the First Revolution but later returns to his research, falling victim to "quick decline" late in the events of Blue Mars.
